

Minnesota Child Care Assistance Program Application

Apply online at <https://mnbenefits.mn.gov>

You may be eligible to get help for your child care expenses so you can work, look for work, or attend school. Child care assistance can pay any legal child care provider who registers with your local child care assistance agency. This includes licensed, certified, and unlicensed providers, 18 years of age or older. If you do not have a child care provider, you can apply for child care assistance and ask for help finding a child care provider.

To qualify, your family must:

- Be income eligible;
- Meet employment and training requirements:
 - Work at least an average of 20 hours per week (10 hours per week if a full-time student) at minimum wage, or
 - Participate in job search, attend school or training classes, or
 - Comply with the activities of an approved Minnesota Family Investment Program (MFIP)/Diversionary Work Program (DWP) employment plan.
- Cooperate with child support enforcement for all children in the family who have an absent parent.

Is anyone self-employed? ☐ No ☐ Yes

Complete this section if you or someone in your family is self-employed. Examples of self-employment income include product sales, real estate sales, personal services, farming, in-home child care, and rental property.

There are two options used to calculate self-employment income:

- Using taxable self-employment income as determined from a federal tax return filed with the IRS for the most recent year, with certain expenses not allowed to reduce income. To use this method, you must have filed a tax return for the most recent tax year and must submit it, including schedules.
- Using 50% of current gross self-employment income. To use this method, you must provide documentation of current gross self-employment income that is reflective of expected future income, such as business ledgers or tax returns and applicable schedules.

The amount of self-employment income calculated impacts income eligibility, family copayment, ability to meet employment requirements and the amount of care that can be authorized. For either method, include proof of work schedule, such as a calendar with work hours. Contact the CCAP agency for more information and to discuss your options.

I give permission to authorized investigators and third parties to share information about me during the course of investigations regarding fraud, fraud prevention and misrepresentation, and conducting federal or state audits. Third parties who can share information about me with investigators include but are not limited to financial institutions, credit reporting agencies, landlords, public housing agencies, schools, utility companies, insurance agencies, employers, other government agencies and others as they apply. I also understand that my permission to share information about me remains in effect for six months after my benefits stop.

Provider release.

State and federal privacy laws protect my information. If I am eligible for child care assistance, CCAP staff can share information about the hours and amount of child care assistance I get with my child care provider(s). My provider will be notified when my redetermination is due. I understand:

- This information must be shared so that my child care provider knows how much CCAP will pay for the child care provided.
- This information can be shared only if I give my written permission or if the law allows it.
- I can refuse to sign or cancel this release, but if I do, CCAP may not be able to pay my provider for the child care provided.
- I may cancel this authorization with written notice anytime. This written notice will not affect information already released.
- The person or agency who gets my information may be able to pass it on to others.
- If my information is passed on to others by DHS, it may no longer be protected by this authorization.

This authorization will end one year from the date I sign it. Minnesota Data Privacy Act (Minn. Stat., Ch. 13).

Penalty warning.

If you get child care assistance benefits, do not give false information or hide information:

- To get or continue to get child care assistance benefits
- To help someone else to get or to continue to get child care assistance payments.

The state may bar a family with a member who breaks either of these rules from the Child Care Assistance Program. The bar lasts one year for the first fraud, two years for the second fraud, and is permanent for the third fraud. A person who supplies false information in order for them or someone else to receive Child Care Assistance may also be prosecuted criminally.

If I get child care assistance I understand:

- I must cooperate with child support enforcement and assign my child care support portion to the Minnesota Department of Human Services. I have the right to claim "good cause" for not cooperating with child support enforcement.
- I may be required to pay a co-payment fee.
- If my child care provider charges more than the maximum rate paid in my county, I will pay the additional costs, as well as my co-payment fee.
- I must report changes to the information I have given within 10 calendar days from the date the change occurred. These include changes in employment and activity status and schedules, family status, significant income changes, address or residence, or anyone moving in or out of my household. Refer to Reporting Responsibilities for CCAP families \(DHS-6953\) for specific requirements.
- I must give the county agency and my child care provider 15 calendar days' notice before changing my child care provider(s). This notice is not needed in cases when:
 - A provider's Minnesota child care license has been temporarily immediately suspended or
 - There is an imminent risk of harm to the health, safety, or rights of a child in the care of a provider not licensed by Minnesota.
- My eligibility for child care assistance will be redetermined every 12 months.
- I have the right to choose any legal child care provider, including certified licensed child care centers, licensed family child care providers and legally nonlicensed child care providers that meet program requirements.
- If I choose a provider to provide child care in my home, I am considered the employer of the provider and have legal and tax responsibilities. This care must be approved by DHS before child care assistance can be paid.

Perjury and general declarations

I declare under the penalties of perjury that I have reviewed this form and to the best of my knowledge is a true and correct statement of every material point. I understand that a person convicted of perjury may be sentenced to imprisonment of not more than five years or payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both. [Minnesota Statute, section 256.984, subd. 1]

The Child Care Assistance Program: What to know about fraud – information for families

What is the Child Care Assistance Program?

The Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP) provides financial assistance to help families with low incomes pay for child care so that parents can work and children are well cared for.

What are the Child Care Assistance Program laws?

If you get child care assistance, you and your child care provider must follow the law. Failure to follow child care assistance laws could result in serious consequences. This document explains some of the laws. You can find more of the program's laws in the Minnesota Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP) Family Guide (DHS-3944) (<https://edocs.dhs.state.mn.us/lfserver/Public/DHS-3944-ENG>) (PDF). If you have questions about these laws, contact your child care assistance worker.

What do I need to tell my child care assistance worker?

You must report certain changes to your child care assistance worker within 10 calendar days of the change. For more information, see Reporting responsibilities for Child Care Assistance Program families (DHS-6953) (<https://edocs.dhs.state.mn.us/lfserver/Public/DHS-6953-ENG>) (PDF).

If you do not report required changes within 10 calendar days, you may have to pay back the money provided for your child care assistance.

When requested, you must submit proof of your actual income to your child care assistance worker. It is against the law to submit pay stubs that are different from what you actually earned to your child care assistance worker, employment counselor, and/or the county/tribe where you receive benefits.

Can the Child Care Assistance Program pay for days when my child does not attend child care?

Yes, but there are limits to what child care assistance can pay. If your child stops attending child care or needs less child care, tell your child care assistance worker. It is against the law for child care providers to bill the Child Care Assistance Program for days when your child does not attend, unless the provider bills those days correctly as absent days or holidays.

Absent days

The Child Care Assistance Program will pay 25 absent days per calendar year, per child. The Child Care Assistance Program will not pay more than 10 absent days in a row.

When absent days are all used for the year, your family, or a payment source other than child care assistance, is responsible to pay for any additional absent days.

Holidays

The Child Care Assistance Program will pay 10 holidays per calendar year, per child.

CCAP cannot pay for provider vacation days, provider sick days, or any other days that child care is not available, other than holidays.

Attendance records

Attendance records must be a true record of the days and times each child arrives at and leaves their child care provider. Records must include the date of service, each child's first and last name, and sign in and out times. Each day a child attends, the person picking up or dropping off the child should be the one to sign the child in and out.

Can I get child care assistance if I work in child care?

Yes, but the Child Care Assistance Program cannot pay:

- Licensed family or legal nonlicensed providers to receive child care subsidies for their own children, or children in their family, during the hours they are providing care or being paid to provide child care.
- More than 25 employee's children to attend a child care center where the parents work. For more information about this law, see Child Care Assistance Program Payments for Children of Center Employees – Questions and Answers for Parents (DHS-6960C) (<https://edocs.dhs.state.mn.us/lfserver/Public/DHS-6960C-ENG>) (PDF)

You must report to your child care assistance worker within 10 days if you start working in a child care center or providing child care.

Can I get child care assistance if I'm self-employed?

Yes, child care assistance can help parents who are self-employed or who own their own businesses as long as:

- The family meets all other Child Care Assistance Program requirements, including income requirements, AND
- The parents need child care during the time they are working.

Can I get child care assistance if I work at a child care center?

Yes, but the Child Care Assistance Program cannot pay for more than 25 employees' children to attend a child care center where their parents work. This law applies to both licensed and license exempt centers. Parents may work at a child care center where their children do not attend. For more information about this law, see Child Care Assistance Program Payments for Children of Center Employees – Questions and Answers for Parents (DHS-6960C).

What if I don't follow the law?

Failure to follow Child Care Assistance Program rules could result in serious consequences, such as:

- A loss of child care assistance
- The need to pay back money paid by the Child Care Assistance Program, and/or
- A fraud determination (see below for more information).

What is fraud?

Fraud is knowingly giving the government false information or knowingly hiding information to get public assistance for yourself or someone else. Public assistance includes programs like child care assistance, cash assistance, SNAP and Medical Assistance.

It's very important that you provide true, complete and current information about everyone in your household to your child care assistance worker and on paperwork you submit. Your child care assistance worker uses this information to determine the amount of benefits you should receive. If your child care assistance worker discovers any information you gave is not true, you risk losing future public assistance benefits and face other serious penalties.

Know what you are signing

Before you sign your name on an application or form, read it carefully. Be sure that you are giving true information about yourself, your situation and all changes in your life.

Fraud penalties

If you commit fraud, you may lose your right to get any future benefits. You may also have to:

- Pay back the money or public assistance benefits that you wrongfully received
- Pay additional fines to the court
- Go to jail or prison.

How can I report fraud?

People who are dishonest about information related to public assistance benefits cause serious trouble for themselves and others. If you think someone is cheating or breaking the law, please help by reporting it. To report suspected fraud, contact the Department of Human Services Fraud Hotline:

- 800-627-9977 toll-free outside the Twin Cities metropolitan area
- 651-431-3968 in the Twin Cities metropolitan
- Online at <https://fraudhotline.dhs.mn.gov>

You do not have to give your name when you report fraud.

What privacy rights do children have?

If you are under 18, when parental consent for medical treatment is not required, information will not be shown to parents unless the health care provider believes not sharing the information would risk your health. Parents may see other information about you and let others see this information, unless you have asked that this information not be shared with your parents. You must ask for this in writing and say what information you do not want to share and why. If the agency agrees that sharing the information is not in your best interest, the information will not be shared with your parents. Client responsibilities and rights

Note: Cash on an Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card is provided to help families meet their basic needs, including: food, shelter, clothing, utilities and transportation. These funds are provided until families can support themselves. It is illegal for you to buy or attempt to buy tobacco products or alcohol with your EBT card. If you do, it is fraud and you will be removed from the EBT program. EBT cards also cannot be used at gambling or retail establishments that provide adult-orientated entertainment in which performers disrobe or perform in an unclothed state for entertainment.

Your responsibilities

- If you receive cash assistance and/or child care assistance, you must report any changes that may affect your benefits to your county or tribal agency within 10 days after the change has occurred. If you receive Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program benefits, report changes by the 10th of the following month. Each benefits program may have different requirements for reporting changes. - Income – receipt or change in child support, Social Security, veteran benefits, unemployment insurance, inheritance or insurance benefits
- Property – purchase, sale or transfer of a house, car or other items of value, or if you receive an inheritance or settlement
- Household status – When a person dies or becomes disabled, moves in or out of your home or temporarily leaves; pregnancy; birth of a child

You may also be required to report if you are party to a newly filed lawsuit, or if you have been convicted of a drug-related felony.

Note: If you are enrolled in child care assistance and change child care providers, you must notify your child care worker and provider at least 15 days before the change goes into effect.

If you have questions or are unsure about any reporting rules, contact your case worker. If your case worker is not available, leave a message so they can get back to you.

- Your county, tribal, state or federal agency may check any of the information you provide. To obtain some forms of information, the county must have your signed consent. If you don't allow the county to confirm your information, you might not receive assistance.
- If you provide information you know is untrue, withhold information or do not report as required, or it's later discovered that your information is untrue, you may be investigated for fraud. This may result in you being disqualified from receiving benefits, charged with a criminal offense, or both.
- The state or federal quality control agency may randomly choose your case for review. They will review statements you provided and will check to see if your eligibility was determined correctly. The state may seek information from other sources and will inform you about any contact they intend to make. If you do not cooperate, your benefits may stop.
- Cooperation requirements:
 - If your county or tribal agency approves you for the Minnesota Family Investment Program or the Diversionary Work Program, you must cooperate with all required employment services, unless you are exempt. You must develop and sign an employment plan with your case worker or your Diversionary Work Program application will be denied.
 - You must cooperate with child support to receive Minnesota Family Investment Program benefits, Diversionary Work Program benefits and/or child care assistance program.

If you receive child support directly from a noncustodial parent, you must report it to your case worker.

For Cash and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits:

- Each time you use your EBT card or sign your check, you state that you have informed your county or tribal agency about any changes in your situation that may affect your benefits.
- Each time your EBT card is used, it's assumed you have received your cash or SNAP benefits, unless you reported your card lost or stolen to your county or tribal agency.

Note: If you sign the application as an authorized representative of a person who is requesting or receiving assistance, you are agreeing to assume all of the responsibilities listed above on behalf of that person.

Your rights

- Your right to privacy. Your private information, including your health information, is protected by state and federal laws. Your case worker has given you a Notice of Privacy Practices (DHS-3979) information sheet explaining these rights.
- You have the right to reapply at any time if your benefits stop.
- You have the right to receive a paper or electronic copy of your SNAP application.
- You have the right to know why, if we have not processed your application within:
 - Five business days for Expedited SNAP
 - Thirty days for cash, SNAP and child care assistance
 - Sixty days for cash related to disability.
- You have the right to know the rules of the program you are applying for and for the agency to tell you how your benefit amount was figured.
- You have the right to choose where and with whom you live.
- Expenses. You have the right to report expenses such as shelter, utilities, child care, child support or medical costs. These expenses may affect the amount of SNAP benefits that you receive. Failure to report or verify certain expenses listed will be a statement by your household that you do not want a deduction for the unreported expenses.

For child care assistance:

- You may be required to pay a co-payment fee to your child care provider. If you do not pay the fee, your child care assistance will be terminated until fees are paid in full or satisfactory payment agreements have been made with your county or tribe and your child care provider.
- You may be required to pay additional costs when your child care provider charges a rate that is more than the maximum rate in your county or tribe.
- You must document the immigration or citizenship status of the children in your family for whom you are applying for child care assistance.

For SNAP, you may appeal within 90 days by writing or calling the county or the State Appeals Office. You may represent yourself at the hearing, or you may have someone (an attorney, relative, friend or another person) speak for you.

If you wish for your assistance to continue until the hearing, you must appeal before the date of the proposed action or within 10 days after the date the agency notice was mailed, whichever is later. Ask your county or tribal case worker to explain how the timing of your appeal could affect your present or future assistance.

- Access to free legal services. Contact your case worker for information on free legal services.
- Appeal rights. If you are unhappy with the action taken or feel the agency did not act on your request for assistance, you may appeal. For cash, child care assistance and health care, you may appeal within 30 days from the date you receive the notice by writing to the county or tribal agency, or directly to the State Appeals Office at the Minnesota Department of Human Services, PO Box 64941, St. Paul, MN 55164-0941. (If you show good cause for not appealing your cash and health care within 30 days, the agency can accept your appeal for up to 90 days from the date you receive the notice.)
